Dear Room 3 Parent/Caregiver

I have some good news, sad news and more good news with respect to Room 3!

The first good news is that Heidi Pink is pregnant and expecting another little treasure. The sad news is that a little later in the year, we will lose her as one of the teachers in Room 3. The second good news is that Ann Bakker, who currently job shares with Heidi, has committed to teaching the class fulltime when Heidi leaves.

At this stage, Heidi anticipates that she will continue teaching until mid-Term 3, finishing sometime in August. She would like to teach as long as possible, to maintain continuity for the children.

While it will be sad and disappointing to see Heidi go, it is great that Ann will step up and take full responsibility for the class. Again, from a continuity point of view, this is the ideal solution under the circumstances.

So, congratulations go to Heidi and best wishes from us all over the next few months with her pregnancy. Thanks also to Ann for stepping up and filling the gap.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at school.

Yours sincerely
